

Adapting to Change: Opportunities and Risks for Health, Social Care and our Environment

28 February 2011, 9.00am – 2.00pm (including lunch)

Westminster Suite, Broadway House, Tothill Street, London SW1H 9NQ

9.00 Registration

Part 1 – Context

9.30 Welcome and introduction to the event:

Professor Anne Johnson, Co-director, Institute for Global Health, UCL, and board member, Adaptation Sub-Committee (Committee on Climate Change).
Catherine Max, facilitator.

9.45 Presentations

1. Alex Nickson, GLA/LCCP and Grant Pettitt, GLA
– Health impacts of climate change: Key messages from the Risk Assessment for London, and the Mayor's Climate Change Adaptation Strategy and Health Inequalities Strategy
2. Paul Plant, Deputy Regional Director of Public Health - London
– The health and social care policy landscape: opportunities and risks for adaptation
3. Brian Watts, Chief Executive, Equinox
– Voluntary sector and service users responding to climate change

10.30 Panel – Perspectives and implications

- Michael Ojo, Head of Environment, London Councils
- Peter Airey, Senior Contract Manager, Look Ahead Housing and Care
- Alexandra Hammond, Sustainability Manager, Guy's & St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust
- David Sinclair, Head of Policy and Research, International Longevity Centre – UK

Questions

11.00 Break

Part 2 – From understanding to action

11.20 "Open Space" session to develop further understanding, consider opportunities and barriers, and identify sector, organisational and individual actions.

12.30 Part 3 - Wrap Up/next steps – Gerry Acher, Chair, LCCP

12.45 Lunch