Subject: Feedback re PQT

Hi both,

Just wanted to share some feedback from some of the Future Leaders who came to PQT yesterday as it's really nice and positive and thought it might lift some spirits after a bit of a rough evening.

They (and the Future Leaders organisers) have also gone out of their way to say how valued the young people felt and how they felt like VIPs because of the seats that had been arranged for them, the fact they got to chat to the Mayor afterwards etc. – so massive thank you as ever Anna for your amazing organisation.

Thanks,

- 1. The day was definitely an eye opener, where we were faced with the reality of the city we reside in. Some of the behaviour from other audience members was appalling, but Mr Mayor remained strong and answered back, serving as a good role model to the youth and it truly shows how much he cares! Thank You.
- 2. It was very interesting seeing such intense politics up close. It was intriguing.
- 3. I have learnt the complications of UK politics and it was an eye opening experience to see the different views on how to make London a better place for everyone.
- 4. The Mayor showed me that keeping a cool head in tough times is very important especially for someone in his position.
- 5. It was amazing to see politics in action! For the first time I heard from the people whose actions impact my day to day life. It was so exciting to see the conversations!!

6.	answer questions. Thank you for the opportunity!
7.	It gave me an insight into politics and what the Mayor is doing for London.
8.	It was very informative, I felt that the questions were answered very well. It was very interesting, and I would love the opportunity to go again!
