

Introduction to the Mayor of London's St George's Day.

The Mayor of London's annual St George's Day event takes place at Trafalgar Square in Central London on Monday 21 April 2025, from 12:00 P M to 6:00 P M.

There is no need to book a ticket, and entrance is free.

The event is a special day that celebrates St George, the patron saint of England. People remember his bravery and the famous story of him fighting a dragon, with parades, flags, and events.

This event is open and accessible to all, aiming to welcome all Londoners by celebrating Saint George, a symbol of courage, kindness, and standing up for what is right.

Join us for:

- A main stage filled exciting music and dance performances.
- Morris dance performances and hip-hop workshops.
- Arts, crafts and games for the families and young people.
- A meet and greet with London's famous Pearly Kings and Queens – perfect for a selfie!
- Fun fair rides,
- A variety of stalls and tasty food offerings.
