V5 (ASK IF V2 = 1-11 or more)

Thinking now about the <textfill number of crimes recorded at V2> crime<s> you mentioned, I'm going to ask you for some details. Firstly, looking at this list of crime types, can you tell me which of these best fit [1 crime: the crime you experienced]; [more than 1 crime: each crime you experienced]. Was it a... / Were any of the incidents a...

Interviewer: If an incident fits two categories, please ask the respondent to pick the one they think fits best.

Multicode: If the respondent has been a victim of more than one crime, and if the incidents were of a different nature, record a crime type for each of the different incidents experienced.

1. Burglary or attempted burglary, where someone entered your house without your permission to steal something or cause damage.
2. Vehicle crime, including if someone took your car/van/motorbike without your permission, or stole something or parts from it. Please do not include bicycles.
3. Robbery, for example if someone took or tried to take something you were carrying while you were out and about, such as in your pockets or a bag, where violence or the threat of violence was involved.
4. Theft, for example if someone took or tried to take something you were carrying while you were out and about, or something was taken from your garden, doorstep, office or shed (like a bicycle), but where violence or the threat of violence was not involved.
5. Criminal damage, where someone deliberately damaged or defaced your property or something that belonged to you.
6. Harassment or abuse, including any communication or behaviour that made you feel offended, distressed, or threatened.
7. Stalking, such as where someone has repeatedly followed you, watched you, spied on you, or forced contact with you using any means, including social media.
8. Violence, such as hitting or kicking, using something as a weapon, or using any type of force against you.
9. Sexual offences, such as indecent exposure or any form of unwanted intimate contact. These behaviours could be initiated by someone unknown or known to you, including a friend or someone with whom you were in a relationship.
10. Fraud, such as scams, credit/debit card fraud, or identity theft.
11. Something else
98. Refused
