

Diwali on the Square

Event information

Visual Story

Welcome to Diwali on the Square. This document contains useful information about the event, including the date, time, location, and what will happen on the day.

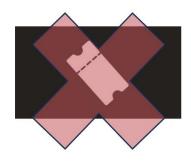

About the event

Date and Time: Sunday, 12 October 2025, from 2:00

Location: Trafalgar Square, London

The event is free and no need to book a ticket.

Theme: Diwali is the Festival of Lights and a time to celebrate with family and friends.

Who is it for? Everyone is welcome at our event, whether you are young or old, coming with family and friends, or joining us on your own.

What to Expect

Accessible viewing area: Our event has an accessible viewing area for the main stage performances. This area is for people who use wheelchairs or find it hard to stand for long periods. Companions are welcome to join, and chairs are provided.

- The event is wheelchair friendly.
- Event staff are trained to welcome and support disabled people.
- Assistance dogs are welcome.
- All shows will be BSL interpreted.
- Accessible toilets are available. Please bring your own hoist sling.
- There will be printed copies of this Easy Read with the volunteers.

Relaxed Performance: You can join the performance at any point and leave at any time. You can move around. You do not need to be quiet.

Main Stage: The main stage will have lots of exciting performances for everyone to enjoy.

There will be music, dancing, and special shows.

At 2:00 PM, there will be a big opening dance in the main square with lots of dancers.

Throughout the day, on the stage, there will be performances from different groups, including Bollywood dances, traditional Indian music, and more.

At 6:30 PM, the square will light up to celebrate "Light over Darkness"— a special moment of the day.

Sari, Safa/Turban Zone: Try on a Sari or a Safa/Turban. Sari is a traditional piece of clothing worn by women. Safa/Turban is a headwear worn by many cultures, including Sikhs, Rajputs, Afghanis.

Dance Zone: Free dance workshops, from classic, to folk and Bollywood. If you don't want to dance, you can also watch the dancers. Workshops run throughout the event.

Harmony Zone: Join in with a series of activities, photo opportunity and contribute to a message wall.

Yoga and Meditation Zone: Join a series of yoga sessions, starting at 2:00 PM throughout the day. The sessions are free and open for everyone, no matter your level of experience.

Glimpse of Goddesses: Learn about the nine goddesses and join in meditation sessions.

Diwali Culture Zone: Watch traditional dance and play Indian games.

Children Zone - Fun activities for kids:

- Play games.
- Get your face painted.
- Dress up for photos.

Diwali Puppet Show: Watch the Ramayana story with puppets. Ramayana is the story of the life of Rama, the seventh incarnation of the god Vishnu.

Bhajan: Listen to spiritual songs (bhajans) throughout the day.

Food and Stalls: Enjoy food, gifts, books, crafts and more.

Transport Information: You can get to Trafalgar Square by bus and the nearest underground stations are Charing Cross and Leicester Square.

First Aid: If you need First Aid you can ask a steward or at the information tent.

Safety: There will be bag checks at the entry points for safety.

Help and information: Stewards and volunteers will be available to help. Information tent is located just inside the main entrance, for any questions or assistance

If there's an emergency your companion must help you get out, and a steward or a member of our team will also help.

Bring dry and warm clothes in case it rains.

If you bring a water bottle you can fill it up for free as often as you like.
