

About the Parade:

The St. Patrick's Parade is a vibrant and exciting event which weaves its way through central London. Expect to see a spectacular procession with colourful floats, marching bands, dance troupes, and traditional Irish pageantry.

This year's Grand Marshal is writer and broadcaster Emma Dabiri. We are honoured to have her lead the parade.

The parade starts at Hyde Park and makes its way through Piccadilly, Piccadilly Circus, Regent Street St James's, and Cockspur Street, before passing Trafalgar Square and finishing at Whitehall.

The parade begins at 12:00pm. Arrive early to find a good viewing spot.

Where to Watch

You can watch the parade from several key locations, including:

- Piccadilly
- Piccadilly Circus
- Regent Street St James's
- Cockspur Street

And our suggested accessible viewing location is at Waterloo Place.

Restricted Viewing Areas

Some areas have limited or no public access for viewing. These include:

- Whitehall
- King Charles Island

Make sure to plan your visit and choose a good viewing spot in advance.

The St. Patrick's Day Parade is a wonderful celebration of Irish culture. We hope you enjoy the performances, music, and festive atmosphere. See you there!

The most up-to-date information and full details about the event are included on this webpage.

You can also find this information in an easy-read document, and a transcript of this video in downloadable formats on this webpage.

If you scroll to the bottom of the webpage, there is a button to translate the page into another language.

If you have any questions, please email StPatricksDay@London.gov.uk

We can't wait to welcome you at St Patrick's Day Parade!