Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your request for information which the Greater London Authority (GLA) received on 12 May 2021. Your request has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You asked for:

I am writing to seek information regarding the costs of, and any disclosable associated costs, paid by Transport for London and/or the Mayoral Office and/or any taxpayer-sourced funding for the commissioning of the David Hockney art project at Piccadilly Circus Tube station as part of the Let's Do London Campaign.

I would also like to request sight of any disclosable invoices or documents related to this commissioning.

Our response to your request is as follows:

David Hockney, one of our greatest living artists, kindly agreed to gift us his art to celebrate our city and encourage visitors back to central London.

He did the tube posters completely for free around the themes of his R.A exhibition - <https://www.royalacademy.org.uk/exhibition/david-hockney>

If you have any further questions relating to this matter, please contact me, quoting the reference at the top of this letter.

Yours sincerely
