7 July 2021

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your request for information which the Greater London Authority (GLA) received on 9 June 2021. Your request has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You requested:

*Could you please tell me what subscriptions to newspapers, magazines and television channels City Hall funds?
And what is the annual cost of each of those subscriptions?*

Our response:

Please find attached and below the information we hold within the scope of your request.

Newspapers and magazines

Please see attached list of the newspapers and magazines that are ordered corporately, and their costs.

The GLA publishes all spend over £250 at <https://www.london.gov.uk/about-us/governance-and-spending/spending-money-wisely/our-spending>

The records can be filtered by category. There is a category for publications and periodicals and the attached payments should appear there under 'Prenax'. However, please note that there are other payments in this category and that not all payments are related to newspapers and magazines.

TV channels

City Hall pays a licence fee to the BBC for the TVs used in the building - cost £159 - and all the free to air channels from Sky and Freeview are available. City Hall does not have any paid subscriptions to any TV channels.

If you have any further questions relating to this matter, please contact me, quoting the reference MGLA090621-5369.

Yours sincerely

Information Governance Officer

If you are unhappy with the way the GLA has handled your request, you may complain using the GLA's FOI complaints and internal review procedure, available at:
