Subject: Ticket office review launch

Dear Janet

As promised, we raised the launch of TravelWatch's ticket office review at the GLA/TfL press meeting today. We're very keen to do something. As mentioned, the 12th itself is going to be difficult but we could do something on the 7th. I've copied James [REDACTED] and Matt [REDACTED] into this email who are the key people in the GLA and TfL press offices respectively and can help take this forward.

Good to see you today.

Yours,

Tim
