Hi [REDACTED]

Copying in the Mayor's press office, as I think this came from them instead?

Cheers,

Subject: RT UK NEWS - REQUEST

Hello!

[REDACTED] here from RT UK news. I'm putting a super positive 4 minute news story together about heat from the underground!

<https://www.dailymail.co.uk/sciencetech/article-8077865/London-Undergrounds-hot-air-warming-1-000-homes-Islington.html>

More than 1,000 homes in north London are being warmed by the hot air produced in the city's notoriously sweltering underground tunnels. A 6.5ft (2m) wide fan installed at the site of the abandoned City Road Underground station on the Northern Line are sucking the stuffy air upwards. A six-story shaft funnels the warm air over pipes and the hot water is then pumped to the local energy centre from where it eventually reaches 1,350 homes, a school and two leisure centres in nearby Islington.

I'd love to chat to you about filming and setting up some interviews with you? Just short 20 second soundbite so will be very quick! Wouldn't take long to do, just myself and a camera man and pre-recorded.

Please get in touch thank you.

Best regards,
