

REQUEST

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, please provide me with full details of the below projects:

1. 'Researching, developing and testing an intervention designed to change attitudes and therefore behaviours in a community in London which practices Domestic Servitude.'

<https://www.london.gov.uk/what-we-do/mayors-office-policing-and-crime-mopac/governance-and-decision-making/mopac-decisions-0/modern-slavery-domestic-servitude-behavioural-insights-campaign>

Please send me a copy of a document summarising the 'behavioural insights piece of work which researches Domestic Servitude in the capital and designs and tests an intervention to change attitudes and therefore behaviours in communities where this is practiced'.

Please also send me a document summarising 'the marketing campaign and creation of the creative execution of the work'.

2. 'A community based stakeholder campaign which was aimed at changing attitudes and therefore behaviours on FGM.'

Please send me copies of the 'creative iterations' of the campaign including digital advertising.

RESPONSE

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 20 January to the Mayor's Office for Policing And Crime (MOPAC). I apologise for the delay in replying to you.

Having consulted with colleagues in MOPAC, I understand that the information you have requested relates to campaigns which are still work in progress with nothing finalised at this stage. Therefore there is no information to provide at this stage.
