Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information request - Developments called in by Mayor in last 2 years; Time taken to grant/reject

Thank you for your email which was received by the Greater London Authority on 2nd January 2020.

Our response to your request is as follows:

A list of all developments called in by the Mayor of London in the last two years:

1. A list of developments called in by the Mayor of London over the last two years is attached (excel spreadsheet). The stage 2 date is the date in which the application was called in. The stage 3 date is the date of the representation hearing.
2. This list includes whether the development was granted permission or refused by the Mayor.

The time in months it took for each of these developments to be granted full planning approval or to be rejected by the mayor's office:

1. The list attached includes the time in days between the stage 2 and stage 3 date. This is the time it has taken for the Mayor to make a decision on each application. This time period does not include the time taken for any section 106 documents to be completed after the representation hearing.

For further information about developments that have been called in by the Mayor, please see the webpage below:
