

GREATER LONDON AUTHORITY

Our Ref: MGLA020816-0864

31 August 2016

Dear

I write in response to your email of 2 August in which you request the release of the following information:

Under the Freedom of Information Act, please would you supply the following information on all your suppliers of good and services :-

Company name

Company address

Company email address

Industry sector / products / services supplied

I understand that details of suppliers of goods & services where you spend over £500 are publicly available information, but I am after contact details too as detailed above.

Your request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act (2000) and we can today provide you with a response to your request.

Please see attached spreadsheet for company names, addresses and email addresses. We have redacted one address and several email addresses which show individual details rather than business/organisation addresses. This information is being withheld under s40 (2) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. This is because it is personal information relating to individuals and therefore constitutes personal data.

I do not believe there is a legitimate public interest in this information being disclosed. The Greater London Authority has a responsibility to hold personal data securely in line with the principles of the Data Protection Act 1998 and releasing this information would contravene the first principle of fair and lawful processing.

You can find information on the sector/products/service in the £250 expenditure reports at <http://www.london.gov.uk/about-us/governance-and-spending/spending-money-wisely/our-spending>.

If you have any further questions relating to this matter, please contact me, quoting the reference at the top of this letter.

Yours sincerely
