

Thank you for your request for information. The information you have requested is already in the public domain. The Greater London Authority responded to an identical request prior to the 2012 games. The manuals were then made available on the following site:

<http://www.gamesmonitor.org.uk/node/935>

Please note that some information within the Accreditation manual was withheld on security grounds. If you have any further questions relating to this matter, please contact me, quoting the reference MGLA270617-8309.

Kind regards

Paul Robinson
Information Governance Officer