28 January 2020

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your requests for financial related information which the Greater London Authority (GLA) received on 7 January 2020. Your request has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

You asked for:

<https://www.london.gov.uk/press-releases/mayoral/mayor-opens-city-hall-to-homeless-londoners>

1. What was the cost of the event above?
2. Can you send me a list of all of the attendees of the event?

Our response to your request is as follows:

The total cost to the GLA of hosting this event was £725.66.

We are unable to name all attendees. The attendees included homeless Londoners from services across London. This information is exempt from disclosure under s.40 (Personal information) of the Freedom of Information Act. This information could potentially identify individuals including GLA employees and as such constitutes as personal data which is defined by Article 4(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) to mean any information relating to an identified or identifiable living individual. It is considered that disclosure of this information would contravene the first data protection principle under Article 5(1) of GDPR which states that Personal data must be processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner in relation to the data subject.

We can inform you that the following people / organisations attended the event:

- Sadiq Khan, Mayor of London
- St Mungo's
- David Tovey, Artist
- Dogs Trust

If you have any further questions relating to this matter, please contact me, quoting the reference at the top of this letter.

Yours sincerely

Information Governance Officer

If you are unhappy with the way the GLA has handled your request, you may complain using the GLA's FOI complaints and internal review procedure, available at:
