Dear

Thank you for your request for information which the Greater London Authority (GLA) received on 14 January 2018.

You requested:

*Please advise cost of the Mayor's latest report re job losses ex Brexit
Also his other reports re public services*

From our preliminary assessment, it is clear that we will not be able to answer your request in full without further clarification and we need further information in order to identify and locate the specific information you have asked for.

I would refer you to the Information Commissioner's guidance that states "You should identify the information you want as clearly as possible" <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public/official-information/>

Please advise cost of the Mayor's latest report re job losses ex Brexit

If you are interested in the 'Preparing for Brexit' report which was published on 11 January, this can be found at <https://www.london.gov.uk/city-hall-blog/mayor-warns-hard-brexit-could-lead-lost-decade-growth-and-employment> and cost just over £42,000. If this is not the information that you were asking for, please identify or describe the report that you are interested in.

Please also tell us more about the 'reports re public services' that you want to know about. In particular, it would be useful to know what kind of public service or services you are interested in, and which reports you have in mind. Our publications can be found on our website <https://www.london.gov.uk/about-us/mayor-london/our-publications?order=DESC>

Once you have clarified your request, I will be able to begin to process your request. Under section 1(3) of the Freedom of Information Act, a public authority need not comply with a request unless any further information reasonably required to locate the information is supplied.

If you have any further questions relating to this matter, please contact me, quoting the reference MGLA150118-0499

Yours sincerely
