Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your further correspondence in relation to the Freedom of Information request for copies of emails and minutes of meetings relating to the Alpha Square redevelopment.

I can confirm that the Greater London Authority does not hold any further information in relation to your request.

With regards to the handling of your original request, I provided emails held by Stewart Murray, the former Assistant Director of Planning as your request related to the Planning, rather than Land team area of work.

Yours sincerely

Information Governance Officer
