Dear Mayor

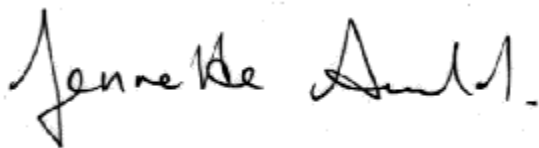

On behalf of the London Assembly, I write to offer sincere congratulations on your election and to welcome you to City Hall.

London is, as you have said, the best city in the world – but there are many issues that do still need to be addressed; the Assembly stands ready to work with you.

As you will know, Assembly Members have a democratic mandate to hold you to account. This will, on occasion, lead to Members asking searching questions of you and your team, and to robust discussions regarding what is best for our city. I'm sure you will agree that this is as it should be – but on the understanding that together, as the Greater London Authority, we are all here to improve the lives of all Londoners.

Congratulations once again.

Yours
