Dear ██████████

Thank you for your request for information which the GLA received on 30 November 2017. Your request has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You requested:

Please could I get a copy of The Greater London Authority and London Development Agency Transfer Scheme 2012?

This holds information about the ownership of a piece of land in London.

The land was owned by the London Docklands Development Corporation which was dissolved, and property passed to the Commission for New Towns and then to English Partnerships and then to the London Development Agency.

I want to find a copy of that Greater London Authority and the London Development Agency Transfer Scheme 2012 (in particular, clause 4) to show the transfer of the property from the LDA to the GLA.

I have tried many other libraries and the HCA and other London legacy organisations but none have any copy of the document.

Please find attached the information we hold within the scope of your request.

We have made some redactions to withhold names from the disclosed information as they constitute third-party personal data which is exempt from release under the provision of section 40(2) of the FoI Act. This provides that personal data (as defined under the Data Protection Act 1998) can be withheld from disclosure in to the public domain where that disclosure would be contrary to one of the Data Protection Principles under that Act. In this case, disclosure would be in breach of the first principle and constitute unfair processing of that data.

If you have any further questions relating to this matter, please contact me, quoting the reference MGLA301117-6204.

Yours sincerely

Ruth Phillips
Information Governance Officer
