Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email which the GLA received on 25th April 2018.

You asked;

"I understand that the Mayor is to launch an investigation into the recent TFL payoff deals. I should like as much information as possible about the proposed terms of this investigation, including intended timescales and to what extent details of the outcome will be made public".

Dawn James, who is the Managing Director of P&OD Partners Ltd, has been appointed to carry out a review into senior staff notice periods and severance payments. The agreed terms of reference for this review is:

The review will look at the policies and practices of the 7 GLA Group organisations in relation to senior staff, specifically their approaches to severance payments, contractual notice periods and other related contractual agreements and the application of these policies. Recommendations will then be made about whether they are appropriate going forward, and if not, what changes may be made. The review will consist of desk based research, interviews and culminate in a written report presented by the summer.

The findings will be made public.

If you have any further questions relating to this matter, please contact me, quoting the reference

Yours sincerely

Martin Clarke
Executive Director - Resources
