

London Policing, Crime and Criminal Justice Research Fair

Working towards a postgraduate degree or a doctorate?
Interested in producing valuable research into policing, crime and criminal justice?

Join representatives of the Mayor's Office for Policing And Crime (MOPAC), the Metropolitan Police Service, Transport for London, London Probation, NHS England and London Councils at the London Policing, Crime and Criminal Justice Research Fair.

You will have the opportunity to discuss research opportunities across a range of policing, crime and criminal justice areas. This will include topics for Masters dissertations and PhDs such as Public Perceptions of Crime & Policing, Community Engagement & the role of Social Media, VAWG, Gang Crime, Business Crime, Policing & Mental Health, Youth Justice, Re-offending, Substance Abuse and Workforce & Productivity.

Places are limited. Please confirm attendance by e-mailing LondonResearchFair@mopac.london.gov.uk by Friday 17 Oct 2014

When?

24th October 2014

10am - 12.30pm

Where?

City Hall

The Queens Walk, London SE1 2AA

