Dear Susan,

I hope you and the family are well.

Thank you for your letter dated 15 March regarding possible issues of conduct in relation to Dame Cressida Dick, the Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police following the publication of the Report of the Daniel Morgan Independent Panel (the report).

As you explained in your letter, MOPAC have decided not to record or refer a conduct matter to us for Dame Cressida Dick. It is correct that we are reviewing the report in its entirety, to satisfy ourselves that the Appropriate Authorities under the Police Reform Act 2002 have adequately addressed all matters. This includes consideration of the responses of the Hampshire Police and the Metropolitan Police Service (MPS) as well as MOPAC.

Unfortunately, the response from the MPS was not received until 14 March 2022. However, we assure you that every effort is now being made to complete our own review.

Dame Cressida Dick is not presently the subject of any investigation by the IOPC and so is not under misconduct caution. There is no reason I am aware of why she should not appear before you and assist by answering your questions.

Yours sincerely

Michael Lockwood
