15 September 2020

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your letter dated 9 June 2020, which the Greater London Authority (GLA) received on 8 September 2020 when our correspondence team re-entered City Hall after its closure during lockdown. Your request has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You requested full details of the budget and costs for the Commission for Diversity in the Public Realm, which was announced by the Mayor of London on 9 June – <https://www.london.gov.uk/press-releases/mayoral/mayor-unveils-commission-to-review-diversity>

You requested information for 2020/21, 2021/22 and 2022/23 as set out in your table copied below:

Would you therefore please respond with full details of the costs as follows:-

Financial Year 2020-21	Item	Budgeted Cost
	Consultant fees (initial survey)
	Salary costs (project team)
	Publicity
	Demolition works
	Architect fees
	Construction and enabling works
	Contingency/ Miscellaneous

Our response to your request is as follows:

The GLA does not yet hold the information you have requested. The budget is being established.

The budget for the Commission will come from within the GLA's allocation of the GLA Group budget, which does not affect the budget for Transport for London or the Mayor's Office for Policing and Crime.

The GLA's budget and spending information is published on our website.

If you have any further questions relating to this matter, please contact me, quoting the reference MGLA090920-3641.

Yours sincerely

Information Governance Officer

If you are unhappy with the way the GLA has handled your request, you may complain using the GLA's FOI complaints and internal review procedure, available at:
