- (28) To apply to the proper Licensing Authority under the requisite Act of Parliament order or regulation for a licence or certificate authorising the use of the demised premises as a Fish and Chips shop and kebab shop and restaurant and to comply with all conditions governing such licence or certificate and to produce the same to the Landlord upon demand
- (29) On completion of this Lease the Tenant must apply for registration of it at the Land Registry in accordance with the requirements of the Land Registration Act 2002 and on completion of the registration must supply to the Landlord an official copy of the registers and the title plan of the demised premises AND FURTHER upon the determination of the Term if the parties do not wish to enter into a new lease of the demised premises the Tenant must apply to the Land Registry to cancel the then registered lease and must furnish the Landlord with a copy of the notice of cancellation

3.(1) IN THIS LEASE "Review Date" means the 25th day of March in the year 2011 and in every fifth year thereafter and "Review Period" means the period starting with any Review Date up to the next Review Date or starting with the last Review Date up to the end of the Term hereof

(2) The yearly rent shall be:

- (i) up to the first Review Date the rent of TWENTY TWO THOUSAND POUNDS (£22,000.00)
- (ii) during each successive Review Period a rent equal to the rent immediately previously payable hereunder or such revised rent as may be ascertained as herein provided whichever shall be the greater

(3) THE revised rent for any Review Period may be agreed at any time between the Landlord and the Tenant or (in the absence of agreement) determined not earlier than the relevant Review Date at the option of the Landlord either by an arbitrator or by an independent valuer (acting as an expert and not as an arbitrator) such arbitrator or valuer to be nominated in the absence of agreement by or on behalf of the President for the time being of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (or in the event of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors ceasing to exist then any other professional organization or body whose members are concerned with the valuation of land and buildings or the Law Society) on the application of the Landlord made not earlier than six months before the relevant Review Date and so that in the case of such arbitration or valuation the revised rent to be awarded or determined by the arbitrator or valuer shall be such as he shall decide should be the yearly rent at the relevant Review Date for the demised premises on the following assumptions at that date:

- (i) that the demised premises are fit for immediate occupation and use by the Tenant and no work has been carried out by the Tenant or their predecessors in title during the term which has diminished the rental value of the demised premises and that in case demised premises have been destroyed or damaged they have been fully restored
- (ii) that the demised premises are available to let by a willing landlord to a willing tenant whole without a premium but with vacant possession and subject to the provisions of Lease (other than the amount of rent hereby reserved but including the provisions for review) for the residue of the term of years commencing on the relevant Review Date
- (iii) that the covenants herein contained on the part of the Tenant have been fully performed and observed

AND having regard to open market rental values current at the relevant Review Date disregarding

- (a) any effect on rent of the fact that the Tenant or his predecessors in title have been in occupation of the demised premises
- (b) any goodwill attached to the demised premises by reason of the carrying on thereof of the business of the Tenant or his predecessors in title in their businesses and
- (c) any increase in rental value of the demised premises attributable to the existence at the relevant Review Date of any improvement to the demised premises or any part thereof carried out with consent where required otherwise than in pursuance of an obligation to the Landlord or its predecessors in title either:
 - (i) by the Tenant or his predecessors in title during the Term or during any period of occupation prior thereto arising out of an agreement to grant such term or
 - (ii) by any tenant of the demised premises before the commencement of the Term so long as the Landlord or its predecessors in title have not since the improvement had vacant possession of the relevant part of the demised premises

AND the improvement was completed not more than twenty one years before the relevant Review Date

- (4) IT IS HEREBY FURTHER PROVIDED in relation to the said revised rent as follows:
 - (i) the arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the Arbitration Act 1996 or any statutory modification or re-enactment of that Act for the time being in force
 - (ii) (a) the fees and expenses of the valuer including the cost of his appointment shall be borne equally by the Landlord and the Tenant who shall otherwise each bear their own costs and
 - (b) the valuer shall afford to each of the parties hereto an opportunity to make representations to him and
 - (c) if the valuer shall die, delay or become unwilling or incapable of acting or if for any other reason the President for the time being of the Royal Institution of Chartered

- Surveyors or the person acting on his behalf shall in his absolute discretion think fit he may by writing discharge the valuer and appoint another in his place
- (iii) when the amount of any rent to be ascertained as hereinbefore provided has been so ascertained memoranda thereof shall be signed by or on behalf of the Landlord and the Tenant and each party shall bear their own costs in respect of such memoranda as aforesaid
 - (iv) (a) if the revised rent payable on and from any Review Date has not been agreed by that Review Date rent shall continue to be payable at the rate previously payable and at the expiration of 14 days after the revised rent is ascertained the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord the shortfall between the rent and the revised rent payable up to and on the preceding quarter day Together with (by way of further rent) a sum equal to interest at the rate of 3 per cent per annum above the Landlord's Bankers' minimum lending rate current from day to day on the amount of such shortfall computed from the relevant Review Date until the date upon which the sum is paid (provided that if any part of such shortfall is attributable to an instalment of rent payable on a quarter day after the relevant Review Date that part of the shortfall shall only carry interest as from the relevant quarter day)
 - (b) for the purposes of this proviso the revised rent shall be deemed to have been ascertained on the date when the same has been agreed between the parties or as the case may be the date of the award of the arbitrator or of the determination by the valuer
 - (v) In the event of the arbitrator or valuer being ready to make his award but being unwilling to do so due to the failure of the Tenant to pay the Tenant's share of the costs in connection with the award then the Landlord may serve upon the Tenant a notice requiring the Tenant to pay such costs within fourteen days and if the Tenant fails to comply with the notice then on the expiration of the notice the Landlord may pay to the arbitrator or valuer the Tenant's costs and any amount so paid shall be a debt due from the Tenant to the Landlord and may be recoverable by action or by distress as for rent in arrear
 - (vi) If by the relevant Review Date the Landlord has not applied for an appointment to be made under Clause 3(3) above either the Landlord or the Tenant may thereafter apply for such an appointment to be made (but so that notwithstanding that the Tenant may apply first the Landlord shall be entitled to elect within one month of receiving written notice of the Tenant's application that the determination is to be made by arbitration failing which it shall be by valuation by independent valuer acting as an expert)

4. THE TENANT HEREBY FURTHER COVENANTS with the Landlord as follows:-
- To pay to the Landlord without any deduction such reasonable proportion of the Service Charge (hereinafter called "the Service Charge") attributable to the demised premises being the expenses and outgoings which the Landlord shall in relation to the Building reasonably and properly incur in each Landlord's Financial Year and which are authorised in Clause 5 hereto being subject to the following terms and provisions:-

- (a) the amount of the Service Charge shall be ascertained and certified by a Certificate (hereinafter called "the Certificate") signed by the Landlords Accountants or Managing Agents (at the discretion of the Landlord acting as experts and not as arbitrators) annually and so soon after the end of the Landlords Financial Year as may be practicable and so relate to such year in manner hereinafter mentioned;
- (b) the expression "the Landlords Financial Year" means the period from 1st April each year to 31st March of the next year or such other annual period as the Landlord may in its discretion from time to time determine as being that in which the accounts of the Landlord either generally or relating to the Building or demised premises is made up;
- (c) a copy of the Certificate for each Financial Year must be supplied by the Landlord to the Tenant on the Tenant's written request and without charge to the Tenant;
- (d) the Certificate shall contain a summary of the Landlord's said expenses and outgoings incurred by the Landlord during the Landlords Financial Year to which it relates together with a summary of the relevant details forming the basis of the Service Charge;
- (e) the expression "the expenses and outgoings incurred by the Landlord" as herein used is deemed to include not only those expenses and outgoings and other expenditure herein described which have been actually disbursed incurred or made by the Landlord during the year in question but also such reasonable part of all such expenses outgoings and other expenditure herein described which are of a periodically recurring nature (whether recurring by regular or irregular periods) whenever disbursed incurred or made including a sum or sums of money by way of a reasonable provision for anticipated expenditure in respect thereof as the Landlord or its Accountants or Managing Agents (as the case may be) may in their discretion allocate to the year in question as being fair and reasonable in the circumstances;
- (f) the Tenant must if required by the Landlord with every quarterly payment of rent reserved hereunder pay to the Landlord such sum in advance and on account of the Service Charge as the Landlord its Accountants or Managing Agents (as the case may be) shall specify at their discretion to be a fair and reasonable interim payment;
- (g) as soon as practicable after the signature of the Certificate the Landlord must furnish to the Tenant an account of the Service Charge payable by the tenant for the year in question due credit being given therein for all interim payments made by the Tenant in respect of the said year and upon the furnishing of such account showing such adjustments as may be appropriate there shall be paid by the Tenant to the Landlord the amount of the Service Charge as aforesaid or any balance found payable or there shall be allowed by the Landlord to the Tenant any amount which may have been overpaid by the Tenant by way of interim payment as the case may require;

(h) it is hereby agreed and declared that the Landlord shall not be entitled to re-enter under the provision in that behalf hereinbefore contained by reason only of non-payment by the Tenant of any such interim payment as aforesaid prior to the signature of the Certificate but nothing in this Clause or these presents contained shall preclude the Landlord from maintaining an action against the Tenant in respect of non-payment of any such interim payment as aforesaid notwithstanding that the Certificate had not been signed at the time of proceedings subject nevertheless to proof in such proceedings by the Landlord that the interim payment demanded and unpaid is of a fair and reasonable amount having regard to the prospective Service Charge ultimately payable by the Tenant;

(i) Provided always notwithstanding anything herein contained it is agreed and declared as follows:

(a) that in regard to the commencement of the Term hereby granted the Service Charge shall be duly apportioned in respect of the period from the date on which the first payment of rent falls due hereunder to the ensuing 31st March ;

(b) that the provisions of paragraph (g) hereof shall continue to apply notwithstanding the expiration or sooner determination of the Term hereby granted but only in respect of the period down to such expiration or sooner determination of the Term

5. THE LANDLORD (so as to bind the person or persons for the time being entitled to the reversion immediately expectant on the Term hereby created but not to bind itself after it shall have parted with such reversion or to impose further liability on it thereafter) HEREBY COVENANTS with the Tenant as follows:

(1) That the Tenant paying the rent reserved and performing and observing the several covenants conditions and agreements herein contained and on the Tenant's part to be performed and observed shall and may quietly and peaceably hold and enjoy the demised premises during the Term without any interruption by the Landlord or any person rightfully claiming under or in trust for it

(2) At all times during the Term to keep insured the demised premises in the name of the Landlord against fire and such other risks as the Landlord shall deem desirable or expedient (subject to such exclusions and exemptions as may from time to time be required by a reputable insurer) including loss of rent for three years and architects' and surveyors' fees in a sum sufficient to cover the cost of re-building the same in case of total destruction and in case the demised premises or any part thereof shall be damaged or destroyed by the insured risks to lay out the insurance money for the purpose of reinstating and making good such destruction or damage with all reasonable speed (unless the insurance moneys shall be irrecoverable owing to any act default or omission of the Tenant) PROVIDED ALWAYS that if the rebuilding or reinstatement of the demised premises or any part thereof proves impossible or impracticable then the Term hereby granted shall cease determine with effect from the date of the event giving rise to the payment of the insurance money and the insurance money shall be divided between the Landlord and the Tenant in the proportions which the value of their respective interests in the demised premises bears to one another at the time of the event giving rise to its payment and such proportions shall be determined under the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1996 (or any statutory modifications or re-enactment of that Act for the time being in force) by a single arbitrator to be appointed by agreement between the Landlord and the Tenant or in default of agreement by the President for the time being of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors making the appointment at the request of either party

- (3) At all times throughout the Term (save where destruction or damage results from any default or omission of the Tenant) to repair renew and maintain the following parts of the Building of which the demised premises forms part (but excluding from this covenant the demised premises and the shop front thereof) at such times as the Landlord shall determine to be appropriate:

- (i) The roof
- (ii) The concrete panels (if any)
- (iii) The damp proof course (if any)
- (iv) The rainwater goods
- (v) The external brickwork
- (vi) The foundations

6. PROVIDED ALWAYS AND IT IS HEREBY FURTHER AGREED AND DECLARED

- (1) If the rent or service charge hereby reserved or any part thereof shall at any time be unpaid for twenty-one days after becoming payable (whether formally demanded or not) or if the Tenant in breach of any covenant or agreement on the Tenant's part herein contained shall not be performed or observed or if the Tenant for the time being shall suffer any kind of receiver to be appointed over property which is or includes the demised premises or (if an individual) shall become bankrupt or being a Company shall suffer an Administration Order under the Insolvency Act 1986 to be made or shall be wound up or enter into liquidation either voluntarily (save for the purposes of amalgamation or reconstruction) or compulsorily or if the Tenant for the time being shall make any assignment for the benefit of such Tenant's creditors or enter into any agreement or make any arrangement with such Tenant's creditors for liquidation of any debts by composition or otherwise or shall suffer a distress or process of execution to be levied upon such Tenant's goods then and in any such case it shall be lawful for the Landlord at any time thereafter to re-enter upon the demised premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and thereupon this demise shall absolutely determine but without prejudice to the right of action by the Landlord in respect of any antecedent breach of the Tenant's covenants herein contained

- (2) In case the demised premises or any part thereof shall at any time be destroyed or damaged by any of the risks against which the Landlord has insured the same so as to be unfit for occupation and use then and in such case (unless the destruction or damage was caused by any wilful act or default of the Tenant or the policy or policies of insurance effected by the Landlord shall have been vitiated or payment of the policy moneys refused in whole or in part in consequence of any act or default or omission of the Tenant) the rent hereby reserved or a fair and just proportion thereof according to the nature and extent of the damage sustained shall be suspended until the demised premises shall have been rebuilt or reinstated and made fit for occupation or use or until the expiration of two years from the date of such destruction or damage whichever shall be the shorter
- (3) Notwithstanding anything herein contained the Landlord shall be under no greater liability than such as may arise under Section 4 of the Defective Premises Act 1972 either to the Tenant or to strangers to this Lease who may be permitted to enter or use the demised premises for accidents happening injuries sustained or for loss of or damage to goods or chattels on the demised premises or any part thereof whether arising from the negligence of the Landlord or that of any servant or agent of the Landlord or otherwise
- (4) Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute any warranty by the Landlord that the demised premises or any part thereof are authorised under the Planning Acts or otherwise for use for any specific purpose
- (5) (i) The Tenant shall not be entitled to any right of access of light or air to any building erected or to be erected on the demised premises or to any other easement not expressly granted by this Lease which would restrict or interfere with the free use of the Building or any adjoining or neighbouring land belonging to the Landlord for building or any other purpose and further that no estate or interest in the soil of the road or roads or footpaths adjacent to the demised premises is or shall be deemed to be included in the demise hereinbefore contained
(ii) Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right of the Landlord in respect of such other premises belonging to the Landlord to deal with the same now or at any time hereafter in any manner which the Landlord may think fit
- (6) Insofar as the Tenant's claim for compensation does not fall within sub-section (2) of Section 38 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 no compensation shall be paid by the Landlord to the Tenant if the Court refuses to make an order for the grant of a new tenancy to the Tenant under the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof
- (7) Nothing herein contained or implied shall prejudice or affect the Landlord's rights powers duties and obligations in exercise of its functions as a Local Authority and the powers duties and obligations of the Landlord under all public and private statutes laws orders and regulations may be fully and effectually exercised in relation to demised premises as if it were not the owner of the demised premises and this Lease not been executed by it

- (8) This Lease shall incorporate the regulations as to notices contained in Section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925 as amended by the Recorded Delivery Service Act 1962 or statutory modification or re-enactment thereof
- (9) Without prejudice to any other right remedy or power available to the Landlord if any sum shall not be paid within 14 days after the same becomes due (whether or not any formal demand has been made therefor) or if any other sum of money payable by the Tenant to the Landlord is not be paid when the same becomes due to pay interest thereon (as well as as before any judgment) at the rate of 5 per centum per annum above base or similar lending rate of the bankers for the time being of the Landlord from time-to-time in fact calculated on a day to day basis from the date of the same being due to the date of payment (both dates inclusive) and the aggregate amount for the time being so payable but unpaid shall at the option of the Landlord be recoverable by action or as rent in arrear
- (10) Where the Tenant consists of two or more persons all the covenants agreements and obligations contained herein on the part of the Tenant shall be deemed to have been made jointly and severally by all such persons with the Landlord
- (11) Reference to any statute herein contained shall unless the context otherwise requires be deemed to refer to any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force
- (12) In case of any dispute between the Tenant and any lessee tenant or occupier of any other property in the Building or between the Tenant and any owner or occupier of any adjoining or neighbouring property owned by the Landlord such dispute shall be referred (if the Landlord so requires) to the Landlord for the time being and its decision shall be final and binding on the Tenant
- (13) References to any act or default or omission of the Tenant include any act or default or omission of any sub-tenant or other person deriving title under the Tenant or any servant agent visitor or licensee of the Tenant sub-tenant or other person deriving title under the Tenant
7. There shall be included in the Service Charges such of the following costs and expenses as may from time to time be incurred in connection with the Building PROVIDED that nothing in this Schedule shall impose upon the Landlord any obligation not contained elsewhere in this Lease to provide any of the services herein mentioned it being the intention of the parties that the Landlord shall incur such expenses if it considers the same are necessary or desirable in the general interest of the lessees or occupiers of the Building or in the interests of good estate management the said costs and expenses being:

- (1) The cost incurred by the Landlord in complying with its obligations under Clause 5 of this Lease including any Value Added Tax or any other tax that may be payable
