10 Summons

Any Other Business the Chairman considers Urgent – Summons

Following the London Assembly's Economy Committee's discussion with London & Partners, it is proposed that the Committee resolves to summons the below information from London & Partners. It is also proposed the Committee calls for London & Partners formally to commit, from the financial year 2019/20, to publishing all spend above £250, on a quarterly basis.

Recommendations:

- (a) That the Committee, under the provisions of Section 61(1)(b), 61(4)(b) of the Greater London Authority Act 1999 (as amended), requires the Chief Executive of London & Partners, Laura Citron, to provide the documents listed below, for which notice will be given in accordance with Section 62 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999 (as amended) in due course and with the documents to be provided no later than two weeks from the date of the notice requiring these documents:

- Any documents setting out how the claims set out in the London & Partners Annual Review 2016/17 to have added £340 million to London's economy and supported or created 10,112 jobs in the 2016/17 year were arrived at and all data and information used, including documents setting out: which companies/organisations London & Partners have assisted; how they have assisted them; the evidence for that assistance; and what those companies have then done to add GVA or create/support jobs; and
- Documents setting out details of London & Partners staffing structure, including: the pay bands for staff, details of job titles and where posts sit within each Directorate, Division or Group; and
- The agendas, papers and minutes of London & Partners Board meetings held in the past five years.

These documents and files are to be provided no later than two weeks from the date of the notice requiring these documents.

- (b) That the Committee notes the discussion on how to ensure transparency of London and Partners' operations and calls for London & Partners formally to commit, from the financial year 2019/20, to publishing all spend above £250, on a quarterly basis.
