About the online London Plan

Welcome to the online London Plan!

This online version has been produced as an accessible alternative to the PDF version of the London Plan 2021, it does not replace it. While the written content should be the same, the online version does not precisely replicate the formatting of the original document. In the event of any discrepancies between the different versions of the Plan, the original PDF remains the adopted version.

In addition to differences in formatting and layout, the online version includes revised versions of the images, several of which have been amended to increase the contrast between the colours used. These changes were made to improve the clarity and usability of the images for the printed version of the Plan.

Finally, the online version of the Plan may include updates to hyperlinks where it has been identified that links have changed since the Plan was originally produced. Glossary items may also be updated to ensure they remain relevant. New or revised text is [enclosed in square brackets]

Any comments on, or corrections to, this online version of the Plan should be sent to londonplan@london.gov.uk

Notes and errata

Chapter 3

Corrections have been made to section 3.3.3, part A of Policy D4 and part C of Policy D6 in this chapter. The PDF version of the Plan incorrectly refers to part B of Policy D3. This should instead refer to Part D.
