

Housing in London 2021

London map made of small dots

Key information

Publication type: General

Publication date: Friday 1 October 2021

General information about the report

The annual Housing in London report is the evidence base for the Mayor's housing policies, summarising key patterns and trends across a wide range of topics relevant to housing in the capital. The report informs the development of the Mayor's London Housing Strategy, the latest edition of which was published in May 2018.

The most recent Housing in London report was published in October 2021. This report, as well as editions from previous years, can be found on the London Datastore pages.

Housing in London 2021 includes sections on London Housing Strategy monitoring and key statistics for London boroughs and is divided into five core thematic chapters:

1. Demographic, economic and housing context
2. Housing stock and supply
3. Housing costs and affordability
4. Housing needs, including homelessness and overcrowding
5. Mobility and decent homes

To request the document in an accessible format or another language, please email housing.analysis@london.gov.uk. Comments on this edition or suggestions for future versions are welcome and should be sent to the same email.