

Transport for London

A red London bus and a cyclist on a London street

Key information

Publication type: General

Publication date: Friday 5 July 2024

Contents

Overview

Overview

Transport for London (TfL) is a functional body of the Greater London Authority. TfL is London's integrated transport authority, responsible for delivering the Mayor of London's transport strategy. It operates the public transport network across London and manages London's main roads, as well as other functions. This paper provides key information on the governance, funding and strategy of TfL.

Read the paper \(PDF\)

Back to table of contents