

Submission on the London Plan High Level Document

Key information

Publication type: General

Publication status: Adopted

Submission on the London Plan High Level Document

The London Assembly Planning and Regeneration Committee has written to the Mayor of London, setting out key areas that the Committee emphasises as fundamental to the development of the new London Plan.

The submission draws attention to recommendations made by the Committee on various areas of key importance to the London Plan, to which the Committee points the GLA London Plan team to help in their preparation of the high level document to underpin the new London Plan.