

Transport Committee response to 'A Railway fit for Britain's future' consultation

Key information

Publication type: General

Publication status: Adopted

Contents

Transport Committee response to 'A Railway fit for Britain's future' consultation

Transport Committee response to 'A Railway fit for Britain's future' consultation

The London Assembly Transport Committee has responded to the Government's 'A railway fit for Britain's future' consultation.

In its response, the Committee restates the importance of further devolution of suburban rail services to London.

Read the Committee's response

Back to table of contents