Progress Against the Police and Crime Plan

The Oversight Board discussed the progress made against the Police and Crime Plan, in particular:

- the reduction in neighbourhood crime;
- the emerging trends in crime;
- the progress in boosting confidence in the Police and the key issues around meeting the PCP targets;
- the progress being made in cutting costs;
- the efforts to improve criminal justice timeliness;
- progress with improving compliance with community sentences; and
- reducing reoffending after leaving custody.

The next meeting is 5 March 2014.
