

How we want to make
the licence process better

Our Licence Process Plan

Survey booklet

Who we are and what this booklet tells you about

GREATER
AUTHORITY

We are Greater London Authority.

We work with the Mayor of London to make London a better place to live and work.

This booklet asks you questions about our draft London's Strategic Licencing Policy.

In this booklet we call the policy our draft policy for short.

We tell you about our plans and our draft policy in our Easy Read information booklet.

About our consultation

A consultation is when we tell you about our plans and ask what you think about them.

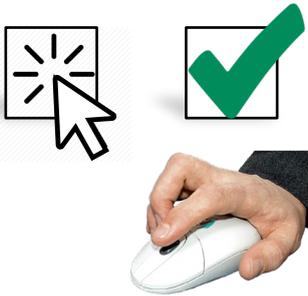

We care about what you think. We have written a survey for you to fill in so you can tell us.

A survey is a set of questions about a certain topic.

How to answer the questions

If there are small boxes, choose the box next to the answer that is right for you.

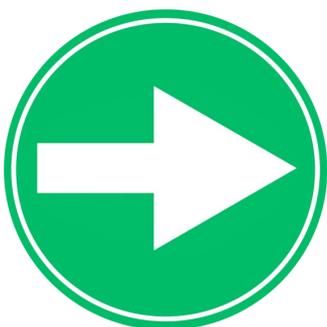

If there is a big box, type or write your answer in the box.

Read our Easy Read information booklet before you answer the questions.

You might want to keep the booklet near you when you answer the questions.

The questions start on the next page.
