

Mrs Lesley Baker comments

Page: Draft New London Plan

Section: N/A

I think that there should be no new build housing whatsoever unless there is adequate parking for each property. Not everyone wishes to travel on public transport either to the shopping centre or to their own homes.

No space other than brown should be built on. We need more greenery not less. Then the environment would benefit as would we, without the war on the private automobile.

And no more housing at all without adequate school and medical infrastructure.