Good morning

Please find below a question about the London Plan.

Many thanks.

Best
Kate

Your message: How can you release the "London Plan" today and only mention Thames Water of the 4 water companies that supply clean water to london boroughs? Members of the public will think Thames are doing all the big schemes to resolve any security of supply for clean water, the other suppliers (northumbrian water (essex and suffolk), SES Water and Affinity) deserve at least a mention that they are trying to address issues.
