

Mr Richard Kirkwood comments

Page: Chapter 1 Planning London's Future \(Good Growth Policies\)

Section: 1.0.1

London Borough of Bromley overturned a successful planning appeal for a new secondary school, Bullers Wood for Boys, ignoring their residents (the majority), even though the planning inspector recommended approval, the school is to be on land designated for Educational purpose, and Bromley Borough is facing a massive shortage of secondary school places. Your plan is being made a mockery off