Dear Sadiq Khan (Mayor of London),

I am writing to respond to your consultation on the draft New London Plan.

I am particularly concerned about the issue of street trees: Number targets are not sufficient. From what I observe newly planted ones are grafted on rootstock that ensure that they stay small - i.e. it would take a few hundred of those to make up for ONE old tree cut down - which is happening far too often with the current infilling spree.

Yours Sincerely,

Yours sincerely
Dr Martin Kunz FRSA
