

As a resident Londoner (born and bred) I feel I must write to convey how strongly I feel about the importance of strictly preserving our green belt.

Having had the pleasure of utilizing these open spaces and peripheral countryside all of my life, it is only right and proper that my children and grandchildren inherit and enjoy the same.

I urge you to keep London a great city - preserve and respect our green belt. Thank you.

Martin Luxton

London