Subject: Mayor's London Plan consultation - Hot food takeaway policy

Categories: Red Category

Hello,

Thank you for this proposal. I support this entirely as it has been a growing personal worry of mine to see young children in deprived areas resort to eating fast food from chicken shops after school. My only challenge is if areas are to implement this policy, they must also provide affordable, healthy alternatives to these restaurants. Many children rely on the cheap prices in order to have a meal, especially if they are not provided with one at home – we wouldn't want children to go hungry as a result of this.

Many thanks in advance for considering the above.

Best wishes,

Tola Masha
