

Mrs Valerie Robertson comments

Page: Chapter 4 Housing

Section: N/A

Care must be taken to ensure that sufficient new schools, medical services, etc. are provided in advance of any increase in population and such increases in population should not be imposed unless adequate increases have been made to the infrastructure necessary to support them.

The increase in public services should not encroach on open land which is used for recreation purposes, i.e. parks and sports grounds.