Your message

Dear Mayor of London,

As an Architect, I want to thank you for the interest in the quality of London's Architecture, present and future. I've read today about the new London's Plan and I had a quick look at it.

I would like to make a suggestion about something that concerns me, which is the evaluation of Architectural projects.

In many cities around the world, when an Architect submits a project to the Council, it is evaluated by Architects. But this doesn't happen in London - planners, who approve or not a proposal, are not Architects by rule. My suggestion, therefore, is that the ones approving or not a project, should be registered Architects and Engineers.

Kind regards,

Tania Serra
