Section: Table 4.1

I object to the level of housing that the London Project is proposing in our area of Wallington. Currently roads are busy and parking is getting worse as more properties are converted into flats meaning more people and cars. Alongside this is puts pressure on local councils to fulfill services to a high standard and in turn increases council tax. Schools are also a breaking point with my son living with 500m of the nearest school but not being able to get in as its over subscribed.

I object to the extra housing
