

I would like to urge the greatest possible protection for existing Green Belt areas which cannot be recovered once lost to "development".

I object to any swap justifications and claims of "low grade" green belt being judged not worth saving.

B Woods

-----

This message has been scanned for viruses by the Greater London Authority.

-----