PART I - NON-CONFIDENTIAL FACTS AND ADVICE

Decision required – supporting report

1. Introduction and background

- 1.1 Approval is sought by the Diversity and Social Policy Team to approve programme budget expenditure for up to £44k in order to:
- 1) Deliver the Mayor's 7th annual Know Your Rights campaign in early 2015. The Mayor committed in his manifesto to carrying out an annual Know Your Rights campaign, to ensure that older people and their carer's are supported with claiming Pension Credit and other benefits to which they may be entitled. Programme budget is required to cover advertising and promotional costs and awareness raising events and activities.
 - 2) Hold a Mayoral reception to promote the Built Environment Professional Education Project. The GLA held a reception for influential leaders of built environment professional bodies in September 2012 to kick start this key Paralympic Legacy project. The project is now well underway, with 12 of the key professional institutions having signed up. Programme budget is required to host a second reception in September 2014 to promote the project, involving key players from the field of Higher Education, in addition to those from the Built Environment Professions. Sir Edward Lister and Munira Mirza have confirmed their willingness to hold a reception.
 - 3) Undertake engagement on, and mainstreaming and monitoring of the Mayor's equality framework. A number of meetings are held during the year with groups of organisations to inform the development and delivery of Mayoral strategies and programmes and contribute to the mainstreaming of equality across the GLA Group. Mayoral advisors attend these meetings where appropriate, to discuss specific issues and gain the views of stakeholders. The bulk of the cost of equality-related engagement relates to accessibility requirements for deaf and disabled people, and some hospitality costs. The engagement and mainstreaming and monitoring expenditure includes catering, accessibility services, postage and stationery, journal subscriptions and conferences costs.

2. Objectives and expected outcomes

- 2.1 Deliver the Mayor's 7th annual Know Your Rights campaign in early 2015
This campaign fulfils a Mayoral manifesto commitment to carry out an annual Know Your Rights campaign. Evidence shows that over 180,000 older Londoners are living in poverty and 1 in 3 of those entitled do not claim Pension Credit and other benefits. The campaign is to help older people claim benefits, promote the availability of money management, debt advice services and credit unions in London. A budget of up to £30,000 is being requested to cover advertising and promotional costs and awareness raising events and activities.
- 2.2 Hold a Mayoral reception to promote the Built Environment Professional Education Project
This reception is part of a Mayoral Legacy commitment. The project is now well underway, with 12 of the key professional institutions having signed up, and a full-time employee funded jointly by the GLA, DWP and DIS. It is proposed to hold a second reception in September 2014, which is supported by the Chief of Staff and Deputy Mayor, Policy and Planning and the Deputy Mayor for Education and Culture.
- 2.3 Undertake engagement, mainstreaming and monitoring of the Mayor's equality framework.
The Equality Act 2010 requires public bodies to publish specific and measurable equality objectives. The GLA's statutory equality objectives are published in Equal Life Chances for All which also sets out the GLA's diversity principles. One of these principles is to make consultation and engagement with diverse stakeholders in London a cornerstone of developing and fulfilling equality actions. This request assists with the fulfilment of our statutory responsibilities under the Act.

3. Equality comments

3.1 All projects promote and mainstream equality across all protected groups, involve aspects of promotion, community engagement and consultation. Monitoring and evaluation processes are also in place for all initiatives. Lead officers are all well versed about their on-going equality responsibilities, and projects are in accordance with the requirements of the Equality Act 2010.

4. Other considerations

4.1 The Mayor's Know Your Rights campaign contributes to:

- The Mayor's Equality Framework: Equal Life Chances for All by ensuring that older Londoners are informed of their right to take up any benefits and tax credits to which they are entitled;
- The Mayor's Health Inequalities Strategy - Objective 3, Commitment 12, which specifically refers to raising awareness and supporting take-up of entitlements.

4.2 Mayoral reception to promote the Built Environment Professional Education Project
The Built environment Education Project offers the opportunity for the Mayor to contribute to a great legacy from the Games. The success of the "most inclusive games ever" has provided an opportunity to stimulate an increase in inclusive design in the built environment.

The key risk is not being able to secure sufficient commitment from autonomous universities and a range of professional institutions. A high level board has been set up and a dedicated staffing resource secured to engage individually and collectively with stakeholders to promote their involvement.

4.3 Undertake engagement, mainstreaming and monitoring of the Mayor's equality framework
The Equality Act 2010 places a duty on public bodies, the "public sector equality duty", to have due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination, advance equality of opportunity, and foster good relations between people with different characteristics. A specific duty arising from the Act requires public bodies to prepare and publish specific and measurable equality objectives, and engagement, mainstreaming and monitoring is essential to this process.

All revised objectives have been developed, revised and agreed with individual policy teams, and equality objectives have been cleared by either the relevant Deputy Mayor, or Executive Director, by the Corporate Management Team, and the Investment and Performance Board. Failure to implement the framework adequately could open the Authority up to legal challenge, potentially damaging the reputations of both the Mayor and the Greater London Authority
