Hello Marcus

Thank you for all the information you have provided during my enquiries into the PTI incident at High Barnet 2022-09-30.

At this stage ORR have not identified any breaches of health and safety legislation however this decision could be subject to review if new evidence is brought to our attention. Whilst the gradient of the accessibility hump may not have contributed to the fall, you are advised to check to ensure this meets the requirements of the standard.

We look forward to receiving a copy of your investigation report as well as details on any actions that have been identified as a result of the incident.

Regards
