

Appendix A: Tackling VAWG Strategy - Outcomes Framework Explanatory Note

	Measure	Definition of indicator	Desired outcome	Source	Regularity
London is a Safe City for All Women and Girls	Women's feelings of safety	PAS questions: "Q20 - How safe do you feel walking alone in this area during the day?" "Q21 - How safe do you feel walking alone in this area after dark?"	Increase in the proportion of female respondents who report feeling 'fairly safe' or 'very safe'	PAS	Quarterly
VAWG is prevented and reduced	Qualitative assessment of education programmes	Evaluation reports into impact of education programmes commissioned by City Hall	Report demonstrates positive impact on improving participants understanding of VAWG	Published reports	Ad hoc
	Evaluation of behaviour change campaigns	Evaluation reports into impact of public campaigns on VAWG	Reports demonstrate positive impact of campaigns in increasing public understanding of VAWG and changes to behaviour	Published reports	Ad hoc
	Perceptions of safety - online	Response to PAS "NQ23 How safe do you feel when you are online?"	Increase in the proportion of female respondents who report feeling 'fairly safe' or 'very safe'	PAS	Quarterly
Victims and witnesses are better supported	Referrals to VAWG support services as part of the CJ process	Referrals from MPS into MOPAC commissioned specialist VAWG services, monitored at a service level	Increase in numbers of victims and survivors referred by the MPS into MOPAC's specialist VAWG services	Services	Quarterly
	Support for investigation Domestic Abuse	Proportion of cases in each period with outcome "Evidential difficulties (victim does not support action)" for domestic abuse.	Reduction in proportion of cases where victim does not support	PRC	Monthly
	Support for investigation Stalking	Proportion of cases in each period with outcome "Evidential difficulties (victim does not support action)" for stalking.	Reduction in proportion of cases where victim does not support	PRC	Monthly
	Support for investigation Rape and Serious Sexual Offences	Proportion of cases in each period with outcome "Evidential difficulties (victim does not support action)" for rape and serious sexual offences.	Reduction in proportion of cases where victim does not support	PRC	Monthly
Perpetrators are held to account	Detections for Domestic Abuse	Proportion of domestic abuse flagged crimes within a 12 month period with a judicial outcome (charge or caution) recorded in the same period.	Increase in proportion of crimes with a judicial outcome	PRC	Monthly
	Detections for Stalking	Proportion of stalking flagged crimes within a 12 month period with a judicial outcome (charge or caution) recorded in the same period.	Increase in proportion of crimes with a judicial outcome	PRC	Monthly
	Detections for Rape and Serious Sexual Offences.	Proportion of Rape and Serious Sexual Offences. crimes within a 12 month period with a judicial outcome (charge or caution) recorded in the same period.	Increase in proportion of crimes with a judicial outcome	PRC	Monthly
	Qualitative assessment of perpetrator programmes and interventions	Evaluation reports into impact of MOPAC commissioned perpetrator programmes and interventions	Reports demonstrate positive impact of programmes and interventions on changing the behaviour of perpetrators	Published reports	Ad hoc
	Qualitative assessment of early intervention programmes	Evaluation reports into impact of MOPAC commissioned early intervention programmes	Reports demonstrate positive impact of programmes on participants' understanding of their potentially harmful behaviour and its consequences	Published reports	Ad hoc
Trust and confidence increases	The MPS is an organisation that I can trust	Proportion of women respondents who agree/strongly agree that "NQ135BD -The Metropolitan Police Service is an organisation that I can trust"	Increase in proportion of women respondents who indicate agree/strongly agree	PAS	Quarterly
	Equality gap between men and women for 'MPS is an organisation that I can trust'	Disproportionality for respondents who respond agree/strongly agree "NQ135BD - The Metropolitan Police Service is an organisation that I can trust" (PAS)	Equality gap within ±5% between women and men	PAS	Quarterly
	Equality gap for 'MPS is an organisation that I can trust'	Disproportionality for women respondents who respond agree/strongly agree "NQ135BD - The Metropolitan Police Service is an organisation that I can trust" (PAS)	Equality gap within ±5% for all protected characteristics (amongst women respondents)	PAS	Quarterly
	The police would treat you with respect if you had contact with them for any reason	Proportion of women respondents who respond agree/strongly agree - "Q62B (the police) would treat you with respect if you had contact with them for any reason"	Increase in proportion of women respondents who indicate agree/strongly agree	PAS	Quarterly
	Equality gap between men and women 'The police would treat you with respect if you had contact with them for any reason'	Disproportionality for respondents who respond agree/strongly agree - "Q62B (the police) would treat you with respect if you had contact with them for any reason"	Equality gap within ±5% between women and men	PAS	Quarterly
	Equality gap 'The police would treat you with respect if you had contact with them for any reason'	Disproportionality for women respondents who respond agree/strongly agree - "Q62B (the police) would treat you with respect if you had contact with them for any reason"	Equality gap within ±5% for all protected characteristics (amongst women respondents)	PAS	Quarterly

Experimental Measures

	Measure	Definition of indicator	Desired outcome	Source	Regularity
London is a Safe City for All Women and Girls	Women experiencing VAWG	PAS question: "V1 - Have you experienced anything you would consider to be a crime or antisocial behaviour in the last one month" - and if yes "C1_V5D. Sexual offences, such as indecent exposure or any form of unwanted intimate contact. These behaviours could be initiated by someone unknown or known to you, including a friend or someone with whom you were in a relationship. "	Reduction in proportion reporting victimisation	PAS	Quarterly
	Women experiencing VAWG	PAS question: "V1 - Have you experienced anything you would consider to be a crime or antisocial behaviour in the last one month" - and if yes "C1_V5A to V5D. Harassment, stalking, violence, sexual offences" and "C1_V9 - Please say if you prefer not to answer this question - Thinking about this incident, was it committed by a member of your family that you live with or an intimate partner"	Reduction in proportion reporting victimisation	PAS	Quarterly
Victims and witnesses are better supported	Victims better able to cope and recover with aspects of everyday life	In development	Increase in victims reporting that are better able to cope and recover after receiving support	Services	TBC
	High harm victim satisfaction rate.	In development	Increase in proportion of respondents fairly, very or completely satisfied	HH survey	TBC
	Repeat victimisation for Domestic Abuse	In development	Minimise repeat victimisation	PRC	TBC
	Repeat victimisation for Stalking	In development	Minimise repeat victimisation	PRC	TBC
Perpetrators are held to account	Repeat victimisation for Sexual Offending	In development	Minimise repeat victimisation	PRC	TBC
	Reduce reoffending for DA	In development	Minimise reoffending	PRC	TBC
	Reduce reoffending for Sexual Violence	In development	Minimise reoffending	MOJ	TBC